

INITIAL REACTION TO BENNION VOLUME 4

Just before Christmas, the Bennion Family Association published the Bennion Family History Volume 4: History of John Bennion, by our family historian Ruth Rogers. We thought you might be interested in the initial reaction to the book:

"I have been reading it and can hardly put it down. Thank you for writing and publishing it for us." -- Melba Bennion Roskelly, Provo, Utah.

"I have read as far as Enoch's death in your wonderful volume 4 of the Bennion Family History. I have wept and laughed and come to love them in the few pages I have read thus far. May I give you my heartfelt gratitude for touching my life with this beautiful account. I can hardly wait to get to read it each day! -- Camille Sanders Cook, Salt Lake City, Utah, descendant of Samuel.

"We recently received your Bennion Family History volume 4 and want to tell you that you did a wonderful job. Certainly any book that is as well researched as yours deserves praise for that alone, but yours has the added feature of being imaginatively written, with the myriad pieces brought together as a harmonious whole. Well done!" -- Josephine F. Spencer, Danville, Vermont.

"Many of us descendants are delighted and excited about your newest book, The Bennion Family History, Volume 4. Our D.U.P. (Daughters of the Utah Pioneers) meeting in which I featured your book and history from it was very interesting. I showed

"One of my sons, David, is in the Army in Saudi Arabia, and I sent him a copy. Let me quote from one of his recent letters: 'The Bennion Book you sent is very good. I've been reading the narrative. It seems to be very accurate. I recognize a lot of it from reading his journal and letters. But to have it in story form text really brings out what they went through. When I read what they went through and how they stuck it out, it gives me more determination to endure this.'

"Another of my sons, Paul, is in the army in Germany. He called this morning to thank me for sending the book. He said, 'I read it to the kids a little each night before bed and they love it. They can't wait to hear what happens next!' — Eileen B. McKean, Salt Lake City, Utah

AUTHOR'S EXPERIENCES: THE WRITING OF BENNION FAMILY VOLUME 4

by Ruth Rogers
Bennion Family Historian

Many touching and, yes, miraculous things occurred in relation to researching and writing the book. Lucile Dimond Smith, daughter-in-law of President Joseph F. Smith and Utah Mother of the Year, had 23 journals in her possession containing valuable information written by older Bennions. Over the years various Bennion committees had tried to convince her to release the journals. She was in her eighties when I contacted her. The first five times I made appointments with her and called in advance to remind her, she cancelled. Finally I made an appointment and decided to go without reminding her. I took down the wire gate that led down a long lane to her house. It was close to noon and very warm. Lucile had just returned from a funeral, had forgotten the appointment, and was not in a mood to talk to this stranger.

I had written a history of our great-grandmother Esther Wainwright Bennion and, with help from the Morrison family in Vernal, had located a picture of Esther when she was young. I said to Lucile, "I have something for you. Let me come in and wait while you have your lunch. I'll give you what I have, then leave if you want me to."

I sat in the living room where I could see out of her kitchen window. She ate, came in, and was surprised and delighted by the picture, which she could remember from her childhood home. She began reading the history. Suddenly she laid it on the table beside her and walked to the kitchen window, where she stood while the minutes ticked away. I saw her shoulders shaking. When she turned there were tears streaming down her face. She said, "You're the one."

"I'm the one what?" I asked. She explained that her grandfather, Samuel R. Bennion, had given her the journals and said, "I don't suppose you'll do anything with these, Lucile, but you'll know who to give them to when the right person comes along."

I managed to hold back the tears while she gave me a few of the journals from the ornate little trunk that had held them all these years. But when I pulled through the gate, I stopped and the tears flowed. As I copied and returned the journals, I gained her trust, and eventually she gave me the whole collection with the request that the journals be donated to the BYU Archives. Among them was the original book John Bennion carried on his genealogical mission to England and Wales. One-third of the way through an account book I found the missing Muddy River Mission Journal.

VOLUME 4 ERRATA

We have discovered the hard way that a few of the copies of Volume 4 are missing about 15 or 20 pages. Please check your copy immediately for such a problem. You may return it to Eileen McKean of the Executive Committee for an exchange. We're checking all the ones still in inventory. By the way, we're about half sold out, so order yours today!

The photo on page 90 of Volume 4 is of the wrong Alfred--it's a photo of his son Alfred, who was commonly known as Fred. This error was pointed out to us by Fred's son Fred W. Bennion, who says he loves the book anyway! We'll try to include an errata sheet in future shipments of Volume 4.

BIRCH BREAKTHROUGHS!!

We're pleased to report that Kathie Pincock has been making significant progress on the Birch line — Esther Ann Birch was the second wife of John Bennion (1820). She reports to us that she has been digging into the files left by her uncle, Howard Bennion, and is making good headway in documentation and even finding names where the temple work hasn't been completed. Furthermore, Kathie tells us that the LDS Church is currently Twins Kyle and Quinn Bennion were both selected as Uintah High School's Student of the Year at the 1990 graduation exercises. Kyle was the Student Body President and Valedictorian, while Quinn was Senior Class President and Salutatorian. It must be their genes!!

STALKING THE MISSING JOURNALS

Some of the descendants of William Bennion (1863-1906), son of John Bennion and Mary Turpin, and his wife Mary Wilson (1867-1944) are trying to compile a family history. Unfortunately, some of William's and Mary's journals are missing. If you have any clue as to the whereabouts of any journals or letters of these ancestors, please contact Sharon Spence (801) 250-3352 or Colleen Bennion (801) 882-0399.

BRIT BITS!

Guy Dear and his wife Elizabeth are moving from England to Durham, North Carolina this month. Guy is an MD specializing in anesthesiology and will join the faculty of Duke University's Medical School. You might be interested in how you are related to him: Samuel and John had a sister Mary Bennion Williams, who never immigrated to America. One of her granddaughters, Margaret Williams, married Henry Guy. He was subsequently knighted by the British king for his engineering and scientific work in the field of steam turbine electrical generators. Sir Henry Guy was also the head of Britain's Institution of Mechanical Engineers until his retirement in 1950. Guy Dear, in turn, is a grandson of Laday Margaret and Sir Henry. Guy's mother and Sir Henry's daughter, Joan Dear, has been a good friend of many U.S. Bennions who have visited England in search of our roots. All the U.S. Bennions join in welcoming Guy and Elizabeth with a friendly "Better Late Than Never!"

"WORLD BOOK OF BENNIONS"

Those of you with the last name of "Bennion" may have been recently solicited via mail to purchase a book called "The World Book of Bennions", which purports to have used computer technology to identify 1,119 households bearing the Bennion name. This publication is neither affiliated with nor endorsed by your Bennion Family Association.

MORE FAMILY GROUP SHEETS!!

We are indebted to Helen Madsen, our family genealogical coordinator, for her diligent efforts in documenting the genealogical work that has already been done. The purpose of this Herculean effort is to make your personal efforts more efficient by eliminating the need for duplicate research. Our objective in the coming issues of the Recorder is to provide documentation all the way to the ends of the known family tree, so we can all concentrate on original research.

Hopefully you are saving the past issues of the Recorder, so that these family group sheets don't get too confusing. In the last issue (December, 1990) we published a pedigree chart that started with the pioneers Samuel and John's father, John Bennion Sr. (1786-1846) and went back three more generations. In this issue we follow the Griffith line back two more generations, and reach the currently known end of these lines. By comparing the pedigree chart in this issue to the one in the December 1990 issue, you should be able to figure out where we are.

As in previous issues of the Recorder, we have followed the convention of only including documentation of the earliest ordinance date that is properly documented. This explains why sometimes ordinance dates seem out of order. We hope our documentation efforts eliminate future duplication. For more complete documentation, please contact Helen Madsen.

Please note that there is no documentation for the family of Mr. and Mrs. Griffith, the parents of Edward (born about 1690). This is because the existence of this family was deduced using estimating procedures allowed by the LDS Church Family History Department.

We are grateful for Helen's dedicated work in this area, but she is very anxious to share the blessings! We need help in two areas: (1) double checking work that has already been done so that we can be reasonably certain of publishing accurate information, and (2) original research. No experience necessary, and great eternal paychecks!

"FAMILY SEARCH" ERRATA

By Helen Madsen, Family Genealogical Coordinator

Some of you may have been using Family Search at LDS Branch Libraries. If so, you may have noticed some errors on the Bennion line. Please do not submit corrections to errors on our common ancestors, which begin with John Bennion (1786) & Elizabeth Roberts (1790) and on back. The correction of those errors are being handled by your venerable Bennion Family Association! Feel free to submit correction on later Bennions, or on your other lines. Another version of Family Search will be released soon, and will reflect some changes, while the remainder of our corrections will not show up until the 1992 update to Family Search (we missed a deadline with some of our corrections). For the time being please use the pedigree charts and family group sheets in The Recorder as your source for the most accurate information we have on John Bennion & Elizabeth Roberts and their ancestors.

At the time of this letter, John was 53 years old, Mary T. was 32, Samuel R. 31, Enoch 15, Heber 15, and Alfred 12. The family of John and Esther Ann had returned from their Muddy River Mission 11 days earlier.]

VOLUME 3 REPRINT??

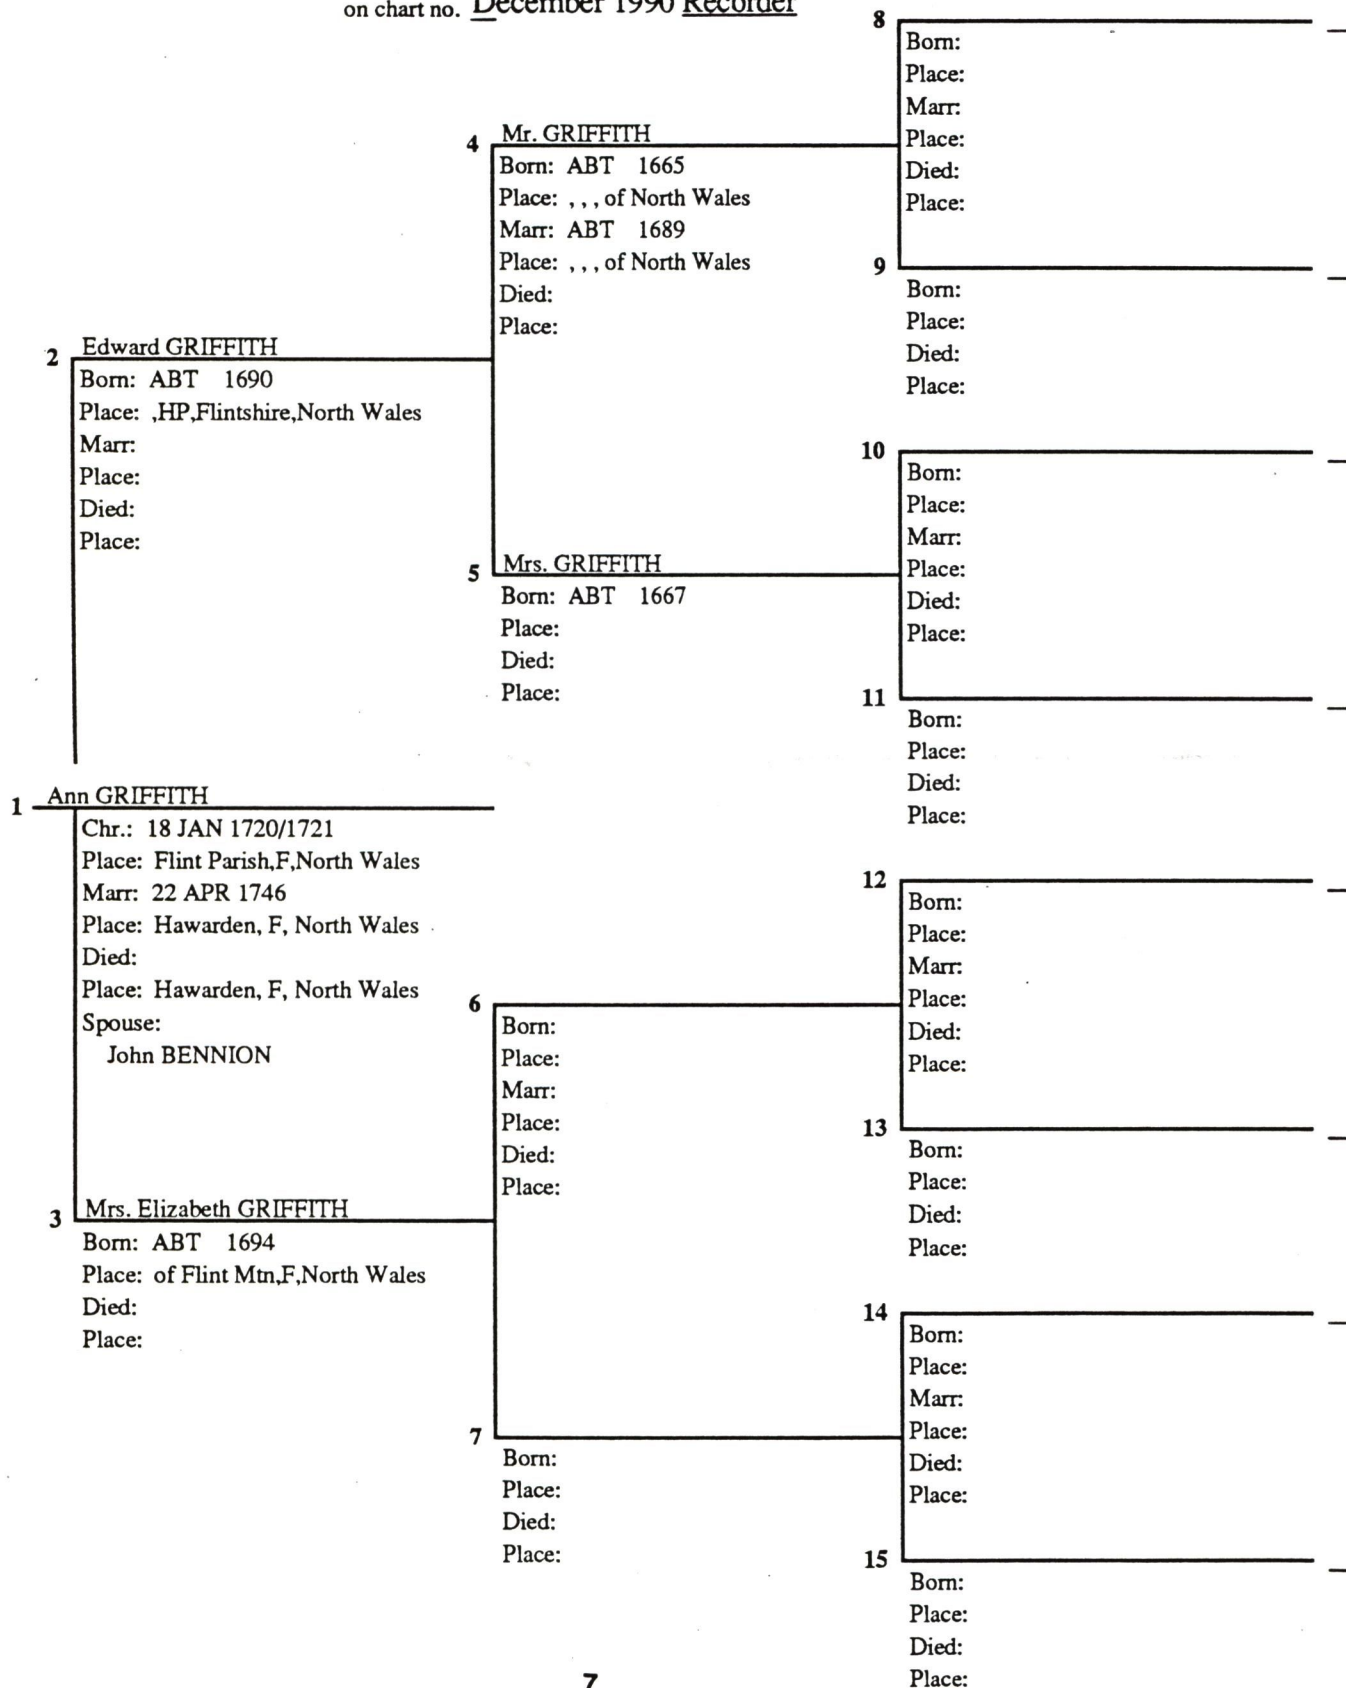

The Bennion Family Association's Executive Committee has received numerous requests to purchase copies of The Bennion Family of Utah: Volume III, which is a beautiful 600 page hardbound book published in about 1970, but currently out of print. About 465 of the pages are John Bennion's journals, but the remainder also includes letters, items written by Samuel Bennion, and 97 photographs of first generation Bennions.

In order to accurately assess the demand for a reprint of this precious record, we ask that you complete the survey found on the back page of this issue of the Recorder. The cost and quality of the reprint are determined by the quantity, so your response is necessary and appreciated!
